Delightful Afternoon of Music.

A DELIGHTFUL afternoon of music yesterday had Miss Isabel Fonda and Miss Lynette Kimmons entertaining a large company in Miss Fonda's home, 116 East Fifth street. Everything seemed to have combined to the pleasure and happiness of the two hundred or more guests who were in attendance for the program, which was rendered by Miss Kimmons, her sister, Miss Marie Kimmons of Fort Smith, Ark.; Mrs. Harry W. Gregg, Mr. Robert Boice Carson and Mr. W. R. Guberson. The affair was given a spring-like attractive setting in decorations of flowering locust, fragrant honeysuckle and pink peonies, which filled vases through the rooms and formed the centerpiece of the dining table. The guests were received informally by Miss Fonda, Mrs. Chester J. Copman (Miss Elizabeth Dickey), who greeted friends for the first time since her return from her bridal trip; Miss Kimmons, Miss Marie Kimmons and Miss Caroline Baker, who has only recently come from Fort Smith to reside. Master Robert Boice Carson was at the door and the programs were presented by Mrs. Harriett Guberson.

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE AND CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

A Junior College for Women. Sixty-sixth year. Located in a "city whose business is education." Schools of Music, Art, Expression, Home Economics. For year book, address: MRS. L. W. ST. CLAIR-MOSS, President, 18 College Place, Columbia, Mo.

The program was one of the most beautiful which has ever been given upon a similar occasion in this city, including, as it did, an array of Tulsa's best musical talent. Miss Kimmons played the opening group of three numbers, from MacDowell, Liszt and Ravel, each of which was given artistic understanding and interpretation. Mr. Guberson, without whose presence a program of music on social or other occasions seems incomplete, sang a group of songs much to the pleasure of the company. Miss Marie Kimmons is a young soprano, with a bird-like, inspiring voice, and she thoroughly delighted the guests with her singing of a group of songs. Mr. Carson was singing at great disadvantage yesterday, he being ill with a cold, but his rendition of his song group was made with great feeling and was most artistic. As a climax to the program Miss Kimmons and Mrs. Harry W. Gregg gave a two-piano number MacDowell's first concerto, and its interpretation by these two pianists was brilliant in the extreme.

After the program refreshments of ices, cakes and candies were served from the dining table, at which Mrs. Robert Boice Carson and Mrs. W. H. Guberson presided. The plates were passed by the Misses Lavon Gregg, Ruth Roemer, Mary Hill, Ruth Toews, Marian Deuel, Ruth Brown, Helen Genet and Naomi Meserve, Mrs.

Philip Kates, Mrs. Ralph Halliday Shaw, Mrs. William Miller Ross, Mrs. Edmund Lashley, Miss Pauline Gorman and Miss Mabel Marsh were also aides to the hostesses. The program: Prelude to First Suite, MacDowell; Gondoliers, Ravel; Last Jeun d'Espe, Ravel.

Time Enough, Nevin; Looking Glass River, Carpenter; Fools Soliloquy, Campbell-Tipton; Mr. Guberson; Song of the Provencal, Dell Aqua; Thrush at Eve, Cadman; Miss Marie Kimmons; Two Roses, Gillette; The Last Hour, Kramer; The Spirit Flower, Campbell-Tipton; Mr. Carson.

First Concerto (III), MacDowell; Miss Kimmons, Mrs. Gregg.

For Bride-Like and Visitor. Miss Tookah Stansbery will be hostess Friday in the lovely new home of her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Armstrong, entertaining with an informal evening, followed by a supper party for the girls who are to be guests. Miss Mary Stewart and her guest, Miss Alberta Graham of Pittsburgh, Pa., are to be complimented in the affair.

T. M. D.'s Picnic. Young misses of the Musical Dozen, with a group of young ladies their own age as guests, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. McClure and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Berlin as chaperones, formed a happy picnic party at Sand Springs last evening.

A supper was spread in the park pavilion and was followed by a visit to the amusement places on the grounds. It is intended to make the outing an annual affair.

Tea for Trinity Church.

Mrs. William H. Roemer and Mrs. W. Lytle Dickey will give an afternoon tea for the benefit of Trinity Episcopal church Friday afternoon in the Roemer home, 1630 South Denver avenue.

Garden Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley I. Stewart will entertain with a garden party Saturday evening at their home on North Lenoir avenue, complimentary to the members of their daughter, Miss Mary Stewart's, bridal party.

Informal.

Mrs. Charles S. Walker has invited a few friends in for an informal afternoon Thursday in compliment to Mrs. Percy Collins' sister, Mrs. Cromwell Bowen of Des Moines, Iowa.

Informal.

Miss Marguerite Gavin will entertain informally this evening in compliment to Miss Roselle Flanagan's guest, Mrs. Pearl McBride of Kansas City, and on Thursday evening the visitor, her hostess and a party of others friends will go to Sapulpa, where they will be dinner guests of Mrs. Flanagan's sister, Mrs. O. D. Hennage.

Matinee Party.

Miss Ruth Toews will entertain with a matinee party Saturday afternoon at a local theater in compliment to Miss Mary Stewart's guest, Miss Alberta Graham of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Annual outing day in the Tulsa Woman's club was a very happy occasion of Monday afternoon at Owen park, where the women who are members, their families and friends, gathered for a picnic supper and evening out of doors.

Supper was spread in the shelter house where long tables decorated with roses, had places for 150. Each member of the party received a rose as a favor. Following the serving, with Mrs. William N. Hill, president of the club, acting as toastmaster, the company listened to a talk on "Preparedness" by Mrs. A. Ernberger; "Music" by Mrs. T. E. Ebright; "What's the Use of Eating?" Mrs. Arthur Craver; "The Spice of Life," Mrs. P. J. Murray; "The Foundation of Things," Mrs. L. B. Riskey; "Our Fathers, Husbands, Sons and Sweethearts," Mrs. O. D. Hunt; Mr. C. P. Craver responded to Mrs. Hunt's talk. Mrs. W. E. Miller gave her report of the district federation of women's clubs, which convened at Muskogee recently.

Matrons of the Tuesday Auction club, with Mrs. Charles Levenson and Mrs. Belle Baldwin substituting, gathered in the pleasant home Mrs. John H. Miller yesterday afternoon for the regular game. The usual high score prize of a credit at Miss Jackson's shop was awarded, after which an ice course was served.

An organization recently formed of women of Tulsa chapter Order of Eastern Star is to be known as the Star club and is to hold meetings fortnightly at the homes of the various members. All women of the chapter are eligible to membership. At the initial meeting, which was held in

DESPAIRING WOMAN NOW HAPPY MOTHER

Mrs. Stephens Did Not Need The Surgical Operation.

Patoka, Ill.—"I had been married five years and my greatest desire was to become a mother. The doctor said I never would have a child unless I was operated on for female troubles and I had given up all hopes when a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly for some time, and I am in better health than ever, and have a healthy baby girl. I praise your Vegetable Compound for my baby and my better health. I want all suffering women to know that it is the sure road to health and happiness."—Mrs. GEORGE STEPHENS, R. F. D. No. 3, Patoka, Ill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence. It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

COULD NOT STRAIGHTEN UP

Had To Go All Humped Over and Suffered Great Pain in Sides and Back

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Va.—Mrs. J. M. Sprinkle of this place writes: "Almost two years ago this coming spring, I got into awfully bad health. Had been married only a short time, and my health was not so good after my marriage as it had been before, and kept getting worse all the time. I was going down hill in health, could only drag around. My friends recommended that I try Cardui. I tried various remedies which did me no good. I simply moped all the time and felt sick all over. So I began using Cardui and in a short time I was greatly improved; after the use of one bottle was able to do my work. Before starting it I couldn't straighten up to save me; had to go when I went all humped over, suffered great pains in the abdomen, sides and back worse than anywhere. After the use of one bottle, I had no more pain at all. It is also a fine tonic. The cure has been permanent and I have had no trouble since, neither had to have a doctor or take any medicine since. It built me up in health and strength."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women try Cardui, the woman's tonic. For sale by all druggists.

Mrs. A. C. Spitznagel's home, Mrs. B. M. Gessel was chosen president, Mrs. A. C. Spitznagel vice president, Mrs. H. O. Green secretary, Mrs. Walker treasurer. The next gathering of the club will be with Mrs. Gessel, 1105 South Cheyenne avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cole and daughter Mary Caroline go to Dallas, Texas, today for a visit to Mr. Cole's parents, Colonel and Mrs. James R. Cole. Returning they will come via Norman, where Mrs. Cole's sister, Miss Gladys Ridd, is a student of Oklahoma university.

Mrs. Leola Thompson Kiser is expected to arrive home Friday from Kansas City, where she has just completed a several months' term of study and training in Miss Moss' private kindergarten.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Twelman of St. Louis will come at the end of the week for an extended visit to the home of their daughter, Mrs. Howard W. Anders, and Mrs. Anders.

This week's meeting of the Aloha Auction club has been postponed, the next gathering of the members to be held Wednesday, May 24, with Mrs. J. C. Thompson as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant C. Stebbins have removed to their beautiful new place of residence in Maple Ridge, where they will be at home to friends in the course of a month.

Mrs. Victor B. Walker and her guest, Mrs. Walker and Miss Ethel Walker of Butler, Pa., left yesterday morning for a few days' visit in Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Grimes of Pasadena, Cal., have come for a stay of several months in the home of their daughter, Mrs. S. A. Thomas, 210 East Seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Shepard are moving into their new home, formerly the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Grant C. Stebbins, on West Fifth street.

Mrs. George Coyle and daughter, Miss Carmen Coyle, returned home yesterday after a six-week stay in Chicago.
